

Super Bowl Half Time show was very offensive and an embarrassment of our country. MTV needs to be evaluated. It promotes immoral behavior, regardless of religious preference. Need more stringent standards for all TV. Also, the recent spending bill passed by congress does not reflect the true wishes of the American public. On page 98 there are 24 lines that were added as a gift to media conglomerates. Why is this allowed